Chapter 1 by parrish

Trey, which returned earlier of the high school these days decided to visit the old man who had taken care of him when he was another orphan without family.

A music with fund in his earphones he advanced in the path. The dog did not bark. It was strange there was this girl smells of flowers who showed that the death was there. Trey was taken by a bad presentiment: Harry's cat (the old man) was him died? Poor man Catschou thought of you he.

But by pushing the door he lives him: Harry had died and no old age he had been murdered. And not by whoever: Lissa.

He in girder on, it was her!

(Sorry if it is not perfectly written but I am French)
